

Nos. 6 AND 7

These lots were sold at auction by Pieter Cornelissen van der Veen, March 29, 1659; Arien Dircksen bought No. 6 (Liber Deeds, A: 224-5), and Abraham de la Noy, the younger, bought No. 7.—Ibid., A: 196.

Hanover Street was later cut through exactly on the line of De la Noy's lot.
